Terms and conditions (the boring bit but necessary)

All events are subject to availability of Cacao expression

Cancellation from organizer will have a minimum of two weeks' notice unless there are emergencies or illnesses, and a postponed date will be added

Any cancellation from the organizer will be refunded.

Customer cancellation will be non-refundable, but a different healing option or date will be offered

All participants take part at their own risk. Cacao expression will not be responsible for any injury or ailment if they occur.

All bookings are subject to availability of location hire and availability of the organizer

All equipment is the property of cacao expression

All costs cover location hire, equipment and refreshment costs and time of organizer

Any health conditions or dietary requirements are the responsibility of the participant please let the organizer know if needed

Any children must be 10 years or above with an adult and remain the responsibility of the adult

Incense and smudging herbs are used please take into account if participating solfeggio frequencies and other sound therapies including music used for dance should be considered by the participant

Art products are all non-toxic but may stain clothing in some cases

Flowers and natural elements are used

Refreshments may include nut traces, milks, gluten, wheat , there will be alternatives available if requested

Facilities should be left clean and undamaged

Disclaimer

All participants take part at their own risk! Cacao expression accepts no responsibility for any injury or discomfort or illness that may occur during or after the event or session. All personal belongings are left at the participants own risk, cacao expression accepts no responsibility for damage or loss of belongings. All food and drink are consumed at participants' own risk. participants should take any dietary requirements they may have into account. Cacao expression aims to be transparent about any risks or effects the event may have with appropriate advice.